Prussic Poison Threatens Stock

Milam County Agriculture officials and Cameron veterinarian, Dr. Robert Titsworth, are urging area farmers to use extreme caution in grazing stock on pastures that have been in soil bank or diverted acreage.

Titsworth said he had treated several cases of near fatal prussic acid poisoning one at the Ed Jekel farm, three miles north of Cameron.

Jekel came close to losing six head of cattle when he fed them hay bailed the previous Wednesday from a pasture that has mixed Johnson grass growing in it.

The Johnson grass developed prussic acid poisoning which can prove fatal in a matter of minutes.

Titsworth said that prussic acids develop as a chemical reaction in Johnson grass and Sudan grasses when they are placed under stress, such as the drought conditions existing in Milam County.

"Injections of sodium Nitrate and mouth - fed pills usually can save cattle if they are reached in time, Titsworth said.

"I am not advising farmers and ranchers not to graze cattle on soil bank and diverted acreage that has gone ungrazed for a good while," he added, "But I am asking them to take medical precautions in case of prussic acid poisoning does show up."

In the Jekel situation, Jekel bailed hay Wednesday and let it sit and dry overnight. He was aware of some Johnson Grass mixture in the hay but wasn't aware of any severe danger with dryed grasses.

He fed several bales to his stock Thursday evening with no ill effects. But Friday morning Mrs. Jekel threw a single bale to several cattle near their house and five cows and a bull were on the ground in a few minutes.

"It was just like poisoning flys," she said.

They called Titsworth to the scene about 8 a.m. He mouth - fed the cattle pills and injected sodium nitrate into their veins; the Jekel cattle completely recovered.

The Cameron School Board filled their last two teaching vacancies this week according to Supt. Charles Zeigler.

Maier, 27, holds a BS from Sam Houston State College and will teach seventh and eight grade science.

Kickoff 8 P.M.

Football Season Is Here

Cameron's 1963 Fighting Yoemen will make their debut in Black Panther territory deep in the jungle of Rosebud where Yoe Coach George Kirk has high hopes of everything being rosy–for the Yoemen.

The Panthers have already scored one point in the battle for gridiron supremacy by outweighing the Yoemen crew, five pounds to the man.

The Rosebud backfield tips the scales at an average of 158 pounds per man to Cameron's 157. And the Panther line weighs in at a 173 average to Cameron's 169.

Coach Kirk says that Rosebud Coach Bobby Pollard will resort to a pro - type offence and they have got, "some big old backs," "that can really tote that pigskin." that pigskin."

Rosebud has been picked by preseason experts as strong candidates for the 22-A district title.

The Yoemen will rely on Dick Ponder, 137 pound junior to get things rolling at the quarterback slot. Backing him will be tailback Clark Wohleb, a hard - running 156 pounder; wing back, Larry Plentl; and big fullback, Mike McDaniel.

The Panther backfield has the experience and speed to move the pigskin around says Kirk.

Halfback W. D. Swanzy is a speed merchant that the Yoemen have watched earn three football letters and fullback Tom Gaither, at 191 pounds, is rated as one of the best running backs in Central Texas.

Kirk's tall ends, Merlin Lester and Ronald McWilliams will surely be available for an aleral attack if Kirk so chooses.

Mike Koranek and Larry Hillman are the "big guys" at 186; however, Hillman is still troubled by a foot that was crushed several years ago.

"Plugger" Cliff Evans, veteran R. L. Mikulec, and hefty center Mike Perrin, conclude the Yoe's starting 11.

They will be meeting 14 lettermen from the Panthers.

Among the linemen are Willie Cortez, a three year letterman; Drew Bierds, an outstanding defensive end who has been named to all - district teams the past two seasons; and Elison Burns, 198 pounder, is developing into an all - time great lineman for Rosebud, says Pollard.

The Panthers weak spot may rest in their inexperienced quarterback, Harlen Wunsch.

"Although he has received good pre-season billings," says Kirk, "It takes a cool head in the play-calling slot and this boy will be out to prove himself against us."

Kickoff time for the Yoemen is 8 p.m.

On Milam's Farms and Ranches

News About Milam Farmers, Their Interests, And Activities

Area Cooperators Purchase Land On Veteran Program

In a recent survey of the Soil Conservation District records at the Cameron Work Unit office, it was found that about seven percent of all cooperators served by the unit were buying their land through the Veteran's Land Board.

J. R. Reese, Milam County's appraiser for the Veterans L a n d Board, works with the local ASCS and SCS offices to inform veterans of the services available to them through the land board.

Loans are made to veterans at low rates of interest repayable on a fourty - year basis.

Local conservationists report that the investments made by the state through the loans are good ones. Every Milam County farm purhased through the board has shown improvements and most are planning more extensive conservation practices.

A very large percentage of those buying land through this program have working agreements with the Cameron SCS work unit.

Most of these people have the desire to own small pieces of land, which they wouldn't be able to afford if not for the program, improve them and farm or ranch the land for additional or full employment income.

Local businessmen who are participants in the Veterans Land program include a Cameron banker, area contractor and post office employee, a Houston salesman and another Houstonite employed by NASA and a Hearne school teacher.

County Agents Notes . . .

Cotton Farmers In Competition

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

PRODUCE COTTON TO MEET COMPETITION — One question facing many Texas cotton producers today is "How to compete with producers in other cotton producing areas?" In the future as in the past, cotton production will shift to those areas with low unit production costs from those areas with high per unit production costs, according to Cecil A. Parker, Farm Managements Specialist with Texas A & M Extension Service.

Another question is "How to hold or increase their share of the growing cotton market?" Total cotton consumption is not declining. More cotton is being consumed today than ever before, even though the per capita consumption is declining slightly. The answer to these questions lie in the per unit cost of production.

Production costs in the Blackland Prairie - 1962, records showed that total cost to produce a pound of lint cotton was reduced approximately six cents per pound by proper fertilization. Good management practices along with proper fertilization increased the production of lint cotton 153 pounds per acre over unfertilized cotton. Cash cost to produce a pound of lint cotton that was properly fertilized was 10 cents. For unfertilized cotton the cash costs was 13 cents per pound.

Fixed costs (depreciation, interest on investment, taxes, and insurance) to produce a pound of lint cotton was 4 cents on the properly fertilized cotton. On the unfertilized cotton, the fixed costs rose to 7 cents per pound of line produced.

The total cost per unit of production on the fertilized cotton was 14 cents compared with 20 cents on the unfertilized cotton. Fertilization alone returned this operator an increase net profit of $34 per acre.

HOW TO COMPETE — With good management practices can be produced competitively in Texas with other cotton producing areas. The following points may be considered: 1, Substitute machinery for labor (weed control and harvesting). 2, Use correct amount and kind of fertilizer with proper placement. 3, Control insects. 4, Rotate cotton with other crops. 5, Use hired labor only when needed.

Apply the above practices only when the returns from each practice is greater than the cost of the practice. Remember, cotton producers in other areas are working hard to reduce their per unit costs to be competetive with Texas Cotton producers.

Soil Loans Made For Water Supply

L. J. Cappleman, State Director of Farmers Home Administration, announced today that an $84,000.00 soil and water association loan has been made for Lyons Water Supply corporation.

This is the second loan of this type made in Burleson County with two others in the stage of completion. Funds will be used to drill a well, erect an overhead storage tank and construct a metered distribution system for the Lyons community, located in Burleson County, Texas.

A total number of seventy five farm and rural families as well as private businesses are expected to benefit from the loan.

State Director L. J. Cappleman states that "the Lyons Water Supply corporation will enable residents of this area to have running water in their homes, install bathroom facilities and generally improve the standard of living in this community. This is made possible through the Farmers Home Administration loan and $2,000.00 contribution made by the borrower-members." The Farmers Home Administration direct loan will have a fourty - year repayment period and will bear 4½ percent interest.

Officers of the Lyons Water Corporation are James J. Goodrich, Chairman; B. C. Thompson, Vice-Chairman; Linda J. Murray, Secretary - Treasure.

Association loans of this type are available to organizations operating on a nonprofit basis, such as irrigation, drainage and water supply districts, cooperative water users' association, mutual water companies, soil conservation districts and municipalities. Loan funds are limited to $500,000. when funds are appropriated by Congress and $1 million when funds are provided by private lenders and insured by Farmers Home Administration. Since the beginning of the association loan program, the Farmers Home Administration has made 54 loans in Texas totaling over $4 million.

Milam and Burleson County residents may obtain detailed information regarding loans of this type from Henry N. Ivey, County Supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration units serving the Milam - Burleson County area. The offices are located at 109 W. First Street in Cameron, or on Thursdays only, at the Courthouse in Caldwell. Farming Economy Does Not Always Mean More Acres

College Station — Expanding the farm net income doesn't always mean adding more acres to the farm says C. H. Bates, farm management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Operators think that increasing the farm acreage or adding more livestock is the only way to raise their income, says Bates. He admits that in some cases this may be the only solution, but careful analysis of the present farm operation would probably point to other means of increasing the net income, he says.

Bates points out some factore to consider in deciding how to increase the net farm income. First, are the labor and equipment on the farm fully utilized? Some operators increase their profits by cutting back on machinery replacements. The high fixed cost of bailing hay or other harvesting operations may be avoided by hiring custom harvesters. When such harvesting equipment is purchased, it must be used enough to make its operation economical, he reminds.

Could new enterpsises os methods provide additional returns from the available land and labor? Sometimes added efficiency in several areas of the operation can materially increase the total returns, says Bates.

Are the present enterprises yielding maximum potential profits? Cases have been observed where additional capital used for fertilizer or fencing for rotation grazing have paid good dividends, he says.

Through better planning on his present acreage, the operator can often add to his income without buying more land, says Bates. A good manager must seek the best way to do things and must make full use of the resources available to him, he concludes.

Momentum Gaining In River Bottom Crop Harvesting

Harvesting is gaining momentum and mechanical pickers are running in all direction in the Brazos and Navasota River Bottom area, acording to J. N. Brevard, acting Officer in Charge of the USDA-Agricultural Marketing Service - Cotton Division Classing office in Austin, Texas.

Grades dropped some last week with 40 per cent classed as Light Spotted, and 60 per cent in the white grade catagory. Middling Light Spotted was the predominant grade with 28 per cent being classed as such.

The staple length continued about the same as the previous week with 4 per cent being classed as 1 3-32 inch or noger; 34 per cent 1 1-16 inches; 34 per cent 1 1-32 inches; 14 per cent 1 inch; 14 per cent 31-32 inch or shorter.

The micronaire readings improved last week with 90 per cent being 3.5 or higher.

The market was fairly slow with most of the cotton being held at the present. However, some of the Light Spotted and lower grade white cotton is selling at 50 to 60 points above the loan.

The Austin office classed 74,455 samples last week, which brought the season's total to 294,085 at the close of business Friday, August 30. The classing staff consisted of a total of 23 classers, and there were 4 micronaire instruments in operation. Classing was kept current all week.

Parents Needed In Local PTA

"Children and schools need you in the PTA. Join this important team today."

This is the theme of the PTA membership enrollment period of the Texas and National Congresses of Parents and Teachers for the 1963-4 year. September and October have been designated as PTA membership Enrollment Months by official memorandum of Governor John Connally.

Said the Governor, in part: "On October 19, 1909, the organization's aim was and so remains 'to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community' . . . Few, if any, organized groups have enjoyed such a tremendous growth. This is undoubtedly due to the challenging program which appeals alike to men and women of all occupations and professions . . .

"Therefore, I, as Governor of Texas, in recognition of the outstanding accomplishments of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers . . . do hereby designate the months of September and October as Parent - Teacher Enrollment Months in Texas, and call upon the citizens of our State to assist this distinguished organization's important program."

Mrs. Clifford N. Jenkins of Long Island, N. Y., President of the National Congress, said recently: "Membership in the PTA is a most effective way to bring good tidings into being. In this great voluntary association mothers, fathers, teachers, school administrators, and other friends of children and youth come together to work together. Together they explore roads to reach their goals for children and schools."

"We the PTA Seek to Understand the Family Story" will receive major emphasis during 1963-4, acording to Mrs. W. J. Danforth of all interested citizens to join their PTA's and participate "with enthusiasm" in the year's program, Mrs. Danforth of Fort Worth, President of the Texas Congress.In her invitation to all interested citizens to join their PTA's and participate "with enthusiasm" in the year's program, Mrs. Danforth said,"The overall object of the organization – the best education for all children – can be attained only through the combined efforts of both parents and teachers."

The Texas Congress remains in membership among the states, with a total of 783,624, preceded only by California. National membership has reached a total of 12,121,318.

Rogers Building And Improvement Program Moving

Rogers — Although the building and improvement program of the Rogers Public Schools which was authorized in April, 1963 with the passage of bond program, is progressing nicely, the new cafetorium was not quite ready for the opening of school Tuesday (Sept. 3), Supt. B. F. Harbor announced last week. Students are permitted to eat their lunches in town if the parents approve, as has been the policy in the past, or they may bring their lunches to eat at school until the cafetorium is finished.

The conversion of the former storage building into the Eagle Field House is just about completed. The building offers ample dressing, shower, equipment storage, and is well located between the gym and the stadium. The building was moved off the blocks, a slab was poured, and the building was set down onto the slab, making a very fine building. It is being painted inside and out - side. All walls were used as were, with some doors being changed. The building can be aired well to keep athletic equipment safely.

The painting of the main building is completed with the exception of the gymnasium. It has the appearance of practically a new building, with the nice plastel green coloring. The gym is being painted, with the work having started August 30. Also the gym ceiling is being repaired and painted. The main building has been reroofed. The gym has already been re-roofed.

Several other lesser projects are still in the planning stage. But all of these major projects are just about completed. Rogers will soon have one of the very finest school plants in Central Texas, when these projects are completed.

Hospitality Day Held At Rogers

ROGERS — "Operation Hospitality" was run on the first day of Rogers Public Schools 1963-1964 season in Room 8 of the New Building by the Parent Teachers Association. The announcement was made jointly last week, by Mrs. D. D. Ward, president of the P. T. A. and Superintendent B. F. Harbor for the schools.

Hospitality was extended to any parent who was at school the first day if he would visit Room 8. The hostessess of Hospitality were glad to help in any way needed. There were cold drinks throughout the day.

School opened at 9:30 on September 3, and closed that day at 2:30. Beginning on Wednesday, school will run the full day.

Busses ran 1 hour later than usual on opening day, and run one hour earlier in the afternoon. The routes are being run just about as of 1962-63 the first few days. Then a few adjustments in routes will probably be made.

Grain Producers Doubling Yield With Fertilizer

College Station — This is the time of the year to plant small grains, says Joe E. Cole, area agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Many small grain producers in Texas have more than doubled their yields during the last few years by the use of fertilizer, he says.

Small grain readily responds to fertilizer. The best way for a grower to determine the most profitable rate of fertilizer to use is by having his soil tested, says Cole. Now, before the grain is seeded, is the time to obtain a soil test.

Your county agent has the soil sampling cartons and will be glad to supply them and other information regarding soil tests, says Cole.

Research has proven that phosphate gives best response when placed in the drill row with the seed at planting time. This can be done with a combination type drill, says Cole.

Nitrogen should not usually be applied to small grain until it is well established. If the soil shows a severe nitrogen deficiency, ten to twelve pounds of nitrogen can be placed in the drill row with the seed at planting time, explains the agronomist. Large amounts of nitrogen at planting time could affect the germination and reduce the stand, he says. A spring application of nitrogen usually proves beneficial by increasing yields.

Let's Have A Chick-N-Que

By MARTHA LOGAN

With warm weather comes a change in our pattern of living. At mealtime, for instance, we just naturally migrate to the out-of-doors. This means many pleasant outings for the family, but it sometimes strains the homemaker's imagination to think of something different to serve. You can solve this problem, much to your family's delight, with a Chick-N-Que.

Chicken has always been a popularity leader the country over, and nowadays chicken is better than ever. Swift & Company has developed chickens for frying that are specially grown for flavor and tenderness. You'll find them at your food dealer's, wing-tagged so they are easy to recognize.

When buying supplies for your Chick-N-Que, remember that open air sharpens appetites and be prepared with plenty of chicken. One frying chicken will provide four servings, but you're likely to have many calls for "seconds." If you'd like to barbecue your chicken "Western Style," ask your dealer to cut the chicken into quarters for you.

Western Style Chick-N-Que can be prepared at the picnic grounds, or if you prefer, cooked at home and taken along ready to eat. Have a Chick-N-Que one day soon and chances are you'll make it a warm weather tradition in your family.

WESTERN STYLE CHICK-N-QUE

Yield: 8 servings

2 tender-grown chickens cut in quarters
Fat
Flour
Barbecue Sauce

Wash chicken quarters and dry. Roll in flour to coat well. Shake off excess flour. Melt ½ cup shortening in a skillet. Brown chicken pieces on both sides in hot fat. Pour barbecue sauce over chicken. Cover and cook slowly 30 to 40 minutes or until tender. Remove cover and cook an additional 10 minutes.

A Look At SPORTS

BY ROBERT MANN

New ideas are in the making at Yoe High School's gymnasium where Coach Kirk and his staff ponder hour - after - hour over ways of improving the athletic program.

The first shock - wave decision to hit Cameron gridiron fans came last week.

Kirk announced that the time, date, or place, of the annual preseason scrimmage game would not be released to the public because of technical difficulties involving team scouting that occurred in the past.

By the way, Cameron tripped Mexia, 8-6, in the game; although it was not broadcast via eye sight by many fans, Kirk said his boys learned a lot and showed up well under game pressure.

Another first came this week when Kirk announced that after-school workouts would not be held until the summer heat subsided.

This met with standard approval from players and school officials alike. It might also inspire more spectator enthusiasm at the nightly drills.

This schedule will allow the football players to use their last class period as a study hall and then return to the field.

Kirk has had his own share of the surprises in the way of football participation turnout.

Uniforming and equipment has turned into a real problem, says Kirk. "The last thing Coach Roberts said before he left was that we'd have about 30 - 35 boys out for football."

"Why we have had almost that many on the freshman team plus 38 varsity members, not to mention 31 eight graders and 29 seventh graders who Coach Bennett is working in agility drills."

With the exception of three recollected uniforms, Kirk has had no trouble keeping his recruits out for the spot.

Injuries have also been at a minimum.

A recurrence of Larry Hillman's foot injury has been a problem and Augie Dohnalik suffered a fractured hand Tuesday and may see limited action tomorrow.

Buckholts Badgers Squad Opens Year On Home Grounds Soon

The Buckholts Badgers open the 1963 football season by hosting the Milano Eagles on Badger field at 8 p.m., Friday night.

The Badgers are in the process of a rebuilding program this year with a large number of boys out for the first time. The team roster shows a total of 19 boys out for the sport with only three returning lettermen.

These lettermen are: Dicky Jones, a 6' - 145 pound Junior who has been shifted from right to left end. He will probably do the linebacking chores on defense.

Other probable starting players are: Johnny Mekush 5' 11" - 180 pound Junior at center; Larry Coufal 5' 8" - 141 Junior at right end; Don Glaser 5' 9" - 136 pound Sophomore at quarterback.

Carroll Wood

Tribute Paid Coach

Not long ago Coach Wood passed away. And with his death, died another chapter in the story of dedicated career men who ask nothing else from life than an opportunity to leave a slate well marked with friends and accomplishments, not of a spectacular nature but more like, "its the little things that count.

Coach Wood was this kind of man to some 5,000 boys he coached in high school football in towns like Cameron, Mexia, and McGregor. He was also this kind of man to thousands of parents and businessmen that were aquainted with him.

He was even more than this to a son, Rob Wood, currently a staff writer for the Associated Press in Phoenix, Arizona.

Wood recently wrote a tribute to his father published in the Dallas Morning News that told well the story of Wood and men like him.

During his three decades of coaching Wood established a record of 221 wins, 70 losses, and 15 ties. In Cameron he worked with men like J.R. Young Young and Leo Jackson.

Rob Wood described Wood as being pickle-barrel chested, having a set of anvil arms, seemingly misplaced between a bald head, a couple of spindly legs that bore countless scars, hacked across the shins and calves by football cleats and two years of World War 1.

Young Wood relates the story of his first football field, hacked by him out of a hill top, proving he should have been a coach, not a surveyor. The field slanted sharpley from south th north.

"Receive the devil," he'd tell his team captain, "If you win the toss son, take the down slant and we've got 'em on the run."

Wood was always insistant that his boys never smoked or drank during season, wrote young Wood, butone his boys asked, "How come you're so strict and yet you smoke cigars, coach?."

"You just landed a punch, son" he said. He tossed the cigar into the gutter and never again touched tobacco or alchol.

He once said, "Winning's not everything, I'll lose 'em all if I have eleven gentlemen out there. Hard nosed gentlemen, I might add."

He would tell his team, "Look sharp out there. Shine those football shoes. Look like a champion even if you can't beat Aunt Hannah and her 10 bridge club members."

He drove his players hard with a sound philosophy that after playing for him, any boss in the world would seem like an angel and that his boys wouldn't have any trouble in the world.

He always insisted his athletes go to college, stressed Rob Wood in his tribute. One of his greatest days was when one of his players finished near the top of a graduating class.

"You'll never get rich in this business," he'd say, "and they don't run around building statutes for high school coaches or thick headed athletes."

Coach Wood is gone now but there are some 5,000 of his boys who will remind the man who says, "There aren't many men around like Coach Wood anymore",--that there never were many men around like Coach Wood.

Firemen Do The Job...

Cameron's Volunteer Firemen have been inspired by a flurry of calls that averaged better than a call a day for the past month.

They have been inspired out of sleep, work and other things, but have held doggedly to the proposition that fire fighting, an important public service, has to be done.

It doesn't do any good to ask the weather to cooperate, since it so consistently refuses to rain. But it seems fair to ask people in Milam rural neighborhoods as well as Cameronites to stash their burnables where they won't burn.

Cameron has a fire department with a fierce amount of pride. Ask people whose homes caught fire and often have been saved by these alert volunteers' efforts.

They get the job done.

Beyond Line Of Duty ...

Something should be said about the way Sheriff Carl Black handled the capture of Elton Schiller, berserk 45 - year old farmer who shot his father and Black the other day.

It was not only that Black, now past 60, was struck by birdshot from Schiller's 12-gauge shot gun, but it was that he took the man alive in a most dangerous situation. Black was wise for calling for tear gas. Its use likely saved Schiller's life, and perhaps Black's and other law officers'.

Not many men would have done what Milam's sheriff did. It was a unique, exemplary performance beyond the line of duty.

Expenses Up For Parks-Wildlife

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex., — Texas' new Parks - Wildlife Commission has reclassified its personnel in keeping with the $3,500,000 budget set by the Legislature. Reclassification will result in an additional $10,000 in salary expenses.

Commissioners voted to keep all personnel from the old Parks Board and the Game and Fish Commission on the payroll.

Howard Dodgen, former executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission, will be retained as a Consultant to the Board until January.

Commission also approved Executive Director Weldon Watson's recommendation that the state parks system be managed through the five regional offices used by game officials. Regional headquarters are located in La Porte, Rockport, San Angelo, Tyler and Waco.

NEW TREND? There seems to be a new trend toward refusing federal aid: The Irving School Board spurned an offer of an $11,000 grant because "of the growing danger of federal control of the school curriculum."

But most school systems still accept educational assistance from the U. S. government. Texas Education Agencies, looking at preliminary figures for the 1962 - 1963 school year, found $33,700,000 was paid to Texas schools by federal programs.

In some cases, however, accaptance is selective: Both Houston and Dallas, which have local programs geared to prevent student drop - outs, refused cash grants for a similar federal program.

Hodston and Dallas also are among the Texas towns which reject federal funds for school programs. Others include Odessa, Goose Creek, Wichita Falls, Fort worth of sewer improvements in ger and Alvin.

U. S. AID — Abilene turned down a $446,730 offer of aid for a $3,000,000 sewer treatment plant from the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Federal grants for $3,000,000 worthe of sewer improvements in Texas are recommended and administered by State Health Department officials.

Funds refused by Abilene were distributed among the following towns: Fritch, Gonzales, Gilford, Hidalgo, Markum, Mineral Wells, Richland Hills, Smiley, West Columbia and Windom.

TEXAS' TAX TAKE — Although the Lone Star State accepted less federal money than many other states during the fiscal year that ended on June 30, it received slightly more than it paid out, according to a survey by Congressional Quarterly.

Texans paid about 4.26 per cent of all taxes received by the federal government. It repaid 4.81 per cent of the $10,000,000 - plus federal grant total, or $500,295,000.

National average of federal aid received was $56 per capita. In Texas, the assistance averaged $49 per citizen. Alaskans were high with a per capita average of $226. Low was New Jersey with $34 per capita.

Schools and sewer systems were just a few targets of federal aid. In fiscal 1962, this state received $128,734,600 for highway construction: $31,120,182 for unemployment insurance; $62,832,854 for agricultural conservation; $139,252,153 for welfare assistance, and $13,350,583 for the national guard, as well as aid in other fields.

The use of mulches on vegetables has long been recognized as beneficial in preventing moisture losses and soil crusting. Mulches also help prevent weed growth, results in cleaner vegetables, and holds down soil temperature. Such materials and leaves, rotted hay, straw, paper and plastic many be used.

HIGHLIGHTS

SALES TAX RECEIPTS SOAR—State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert announced that sales tax revenues for the fiscal year which ended on August 31 will exceed his expectations.

Earlier, Calvert predicted sales tax income for the state would total $177,975,013. Now he says it will be $2,141,429 more or a total of $180,116,442.

CONSTRUCTION INCREASE — Residential construction accounted for $81,600,000 of the $142,000,000 worth of construction authorized in the state in July. It was the highest July and the third highest monthly level in 17 years.

So reports the UT Bureau of Business Research.

GAS BILLS VARY — A study of records, which the Texas Railroad Commission keeps on municipal gas rate structures, reveals a wide variance in gas rates across the state.

Lowest average year's bill paid by individual consumers in 1962, among the 22 cities on the commission list was $41.50. It was paid by citizens of Corpus Christi suburb.

Highest average annual gas bill was paid by residents of Dallas. One of the lowest average bills was paid by Amarillo residents. Their average bill for the year was $53.43.

LAWMAKERS' RETIREMENT PAY — Members of the House of Representatives who have served four two - year terms and state senators who have served two four - year terms, now are eligible for retirement pay under a new law, effective September 1.

When a legislator has completed eight years of service, he receives a $100 a month retirement check. It increases $10 a year as long as he remains in the Legislature.

SHRIMPER NAMED COMMISSIONER — Gov. John Connally has appointed Virgil Versaggi of Brownsville to the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission. He succeeds Weldon Cabaniss of Rockport.

Versaggi has been in the Shrimp business in Brownsville since 1949. He also operates shrimping fletes out of Tampa, Fla., and Britich Guiana, in partnership with his four brothers.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Finds Far More Problems In The News Than He Has Answers For

Dear editar:

There are a lot of things I don't understand.

For instance, those European countries in the Common Market have raised the tariff on American chickens, and the U. S. is thinking of retaliating by raising our tariff on things we import from over there, like perfume and wine.

Why wouldn't is be quidker to set up a tariff on foreign aid? For every dollar we send them, charge them a quarter. As Benjamine Franklin would say, today, a quarter saved in one place is a quarter spent in some place else.

Or take the airlines. I read the other day that the Civil Aeronautics Board has proposed that the annual subsidy to airlines be reduced from 84 million dollars to 54 million. The airlines object, saying the reduction will reduce air service.

You mean to say the airlines are no smarter than farmers and have been living off of government hand - outs? If airline owners can't make it without government help, why don't they give it up and get a job in town?

On top of this, another article I read listed the grants to municipal airports throughout the country, running into the millions of dollars, about 75 million for the current year. As I understand it, the government gives this money so the cities can improve the runways, buy more land to make longer runways, improve the roads leading to the airports, etc.

It's hard for me to see the difference between a city's taking government money to patch a runway and a farmer's taking money to build a terrace, but this is because I can't see the difference between stand - on - your - own - feet farming and municipal improvement, although city papers have been trying to hammer this into my head for years.

Also, I read an article in a big national magazine the other week on how much pork barrel money the government is spending, and I wanted to write and ask that magazine how much subsidy it was getting in the form of low postal rates, but I was afraid the magazine would ask me how much it would have cost me to deliver my letter from this Johnson grass farm to New York in person, instead of getting the government to do it for a nickle.

When it comes to denouncing government help, it's hard to find a man to throw the first rock, although I will undertake the job if the government will pay me to do it.

Yours faithfully,

HOW TELEPHONES USED TO LOOK?

Every old telephone here was once the last word in service. But times and telephones change.

Remember when phones needed fixing so often that each one had a door on the front for the repairman's convenience? Today's telephones give many years of trouble-free service.

Remember when you had to talk loud to be heard? Today you can talk on the phone as if the person were sitting next to you.

Remember when technology limited telephones to one color and one model? Today you can have colors and models to suit your own good taste.

Continued development of better styling and engineering of telephones is another improvement made with you in mind. Our never-ending goal is to improve your telephone service and make it more valuable to you.

Wallpaper Wins Men

With so many of today's new wallpapers reflecting masculine interests. Many men have begun to move in on the selection of wallpapers, especially in choosing a paper for the den or family room.

The paper shown above is just the thing for the man who has a yen for sailing, collecting old marine pictures, ship's models or even flotsam and jetsam.

The paper is called "China Trade," and shows ships in full sail skimming across a sea of old gold, while wind-worn buildings and feminine figures wistfully look seaward. These figures are colored in sharp accents of skyblue and Chinese red. Other papers catering to masculine interests show old motor cars, old firearms, rare stamps, tin soldiers, art posters, golf clubs and tennis rackets. According to today's decorating trends, most of these papers should be accompanied by textured wallpapers on adjacent walls and ceilings.

Texas Livestock

A delegbration representing livestock auction markets and cattle producers of 151 counties will appear before Texas Animal Health Commission in Austin on Monday, Sept. 9, to request temporary suspension of bovine brucellosis testing at markets in non-Certified areas.

The group, headed by the merketmen's Brucellosis Control & Eradication Committee, alleges that market testing in unclean counties "has seriously impaired the previously rapid pace of clean-up of the cattle disease in Texas."

"Thirty - one states are Modified Certified brucellosis - free," a committee statement said, "and since Texas' presentation - Certified status restricts free movement of export cattle into those clean areas, auction marketmen believe Texas should get cleaned up — quickly — with record speed and efficiency."

Of the 184 livestock auction markets presently operating in Texas, only 51 are located in Modified Certified brucellosis - free Counties. Certification of the cattle populous northeast, east, Gulf Coast and South Texas areas is not expected to be completed any earlier than 1970, according to Dr. R. G. Garrett, executive director of Texas Animal Health Commission.

On the basis of present progress, however, market industry leaders estimate is "may be even as late as 1975."

In a prior statement beforeTAHC, Grover C. Lee Jr., TLAA executive director, asserted that during the Commission's over - extended market coverage jurisdiction--from June 15, 1962 to July 1, 1963--only 16 more counties had achieved Modified Certified status under the current brucellosis control and eradication program.

"In comparison," the industry representative declared, "during the prior two - year period when market inspection and testing was limited only to counties actually in process of certification, a total of 68 counties achieved Modified Certified status. The average of 34 per year," he added, "was more than double the number gained during the past 12 months under the Commission's presently expanded market program."

Present TAHC regulations, the committee charges, are "discriminatory toward producers who perfer to sell or buy cattle at auction markets where inspection and testing fees must be paid. There are no inspection or testing charges, however, for similar TAHC - financed veterinary services performed off - market in the country." A number of marketmen report that testing at auctions in non-Certified-or "unclean" counties has resulted in considerable diversion of heifers, cows, cow-and-calf pairs, "thereby defeating the basic purpose of the Commission regulations covering markets in such areas."

"Brucellosis originates on farms and ranches and must be cleaned up in the country -- first -- before it can be effectively controlled," emphasized Oris Reynolds of Texas Livestock Auction Assn. "Market testing in unclean areas is definitely discriminatory to cattle producers and their markets.

"Texas Animal Health Commission should wisely spend every possible dollar in the country testing herds – rapidly, systematically, moving county - by - county from west to east," Reynolds stated. "When a county has been officially proclaimed a Type II Brucellosis Control Area, following lawful petitioning by 75 percent of cattle owners

Milam ASCS Report

Applications for grazing and haying of feed grain and wheat stabilization diverted acreage and soil bank land are now being accepted by the Milam County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Service, according to Alva E. Sanders, office manager.

Authorization for grazing and haying of land taken out of production was received from the State Disaster Committee after the Secretary of Agriculture recently approved Milam County as a drought disaster area.

mittee was instrumental in having this approval granted. Members of the committee are Ted Ford, ASCS; J. D. Moore, FES, and Henry Ivey, FHA.

The State Disaster Committee policy provides that any producers approved for grazing CR land or diverted acreage under the Feed Grain or Wheat Stabilization Programs be charged a minimum monthly rate of 10 percent of the 1960 basic country CR rate per acre or $1.25 per acre, which ever is larger; and that producers be charged a minimum of 50 percent of the 1960 basic county CR rate for acreage cut for hay. (The basic county CR rate for Milam County is $12.00 per acre.

In line with this policy the County Disaster Committee has set the monthly rates in Milam County for grazing poor cover at $1.25 per acre; for fair cover--$1.60, and for good cover--$2.00.

The rates for harvesting hay are $6.00 for poor cover; $8.00 for fair, and $10.00 for good. Hay harvested under this permission may be sold within the disaster area and the maximum price that may be charged is $25.00 per ton.

Farmers interested in either grazing or haying privileges were cautioned not to proceed without prior approval. Such action could result in forfeiture of all program payments, Sanders said. Full details may be obtained at the Milam County ASCS office.

FEAR MUST BE CONQUERED

Fear is likely to be the most common reaction to that which is unknown. He that would become a deep sea diver must first learn to conquer it, for there is much that is unknown about the deep.

As fear would be a great handicap for a diver so it is for the most satisfactory and successful life. The person who learns to drive fear and resentment from his heart and mind early in life has progressed far toward accomplishing a successful life — and successful does not mean the accumulation of material things.

The Church, if used regularly and for the nobel purpose for which it was designed, will help anyone cleanse his heart of fear and its twin companion, resentment.

Alcoa Will Sponsor NBC-TV's Huntley-Brinkley News Cast

Alcoa will become a regular sponsor of NBC-TV's Huntley - Brinkley Report when its news coverage on the entire network is expanded from 15 minutes to half an hour on September 9.

Alcoa's participation in the network's top news show will be 15 minutes each Monday, starting September 9, and on alternate Wednesdays beginning September 11.

All local NBC-TV stations across the country will carry the newscast--mostly from 7 - 7:30 p.m., but with the option of using it from 6:30 - 7 p.m.

The final presentation of Alcoa Premier will be on September 12.

Alcoa Singled Out As Ingot Supplier

Alcoa's Rockdale Works has been singled out as the chief supplier of 50 pounds aluminum ingot for the South American market.

According to Rockdale Works Manager J. E. Yates, the smelting plant will carry an inventory of about one million pounds of ingot to be in a position to expedite orders for the Latin market.

Metal will be trucked to Houston or Galveston and loaded aboard ocean going vessels headed for South American countries.

The first order is destined for Buenos Aires, Argentina. One of the reasons for Rockdale's participation in this was the speed with which domestic metal could be shipped to the South American market from the Gulf Coast area.

During 1962, 41.1 per cent of the nations total dairy cows and heifers two years old and older were bred artificially. Eight states reported 50 per cent or more of their cows bred artificially while Texas bred only about 12 per cent of its dairy cows by this means.
